

Remark

35 U.S.C. §103 Rejection

Halavais in view of Sankaranarayan

The Examiner has rejected claims 1-4 and 6-24 under 35 U.S.C. §103 (a) as being unpatentable over Halavais et al., WO 00/65506 (“Halavais”) in view of Sankaranarayan et al., U.S. Patent No. 6,799,208 (“Sankaranarayan”).

First, new Claim 24 recites “receiving information from at least two different remote servers representing different service providers regarding available resource items.” In contrast, Sankaranarayan at Abstract discloses “a resource manager.” and “one or more resource consumers such as a system component or application.”

In addition, claim 24 recites having “different suppliers.” However, Sankaranarayan at Abstract discloses “multiple resource providers.” Accordingly, applicant respectfully submits that Sankaranarayan fails to disclose that two or more resource items are from different service providers and different remote servers.

Second, applicants respectfully submit that Sankaranarayan is in a different field of art, and thus it would not have been obvious to one skilled in the art to combine Sankaranarayan with Halavais. Sankaranarayan relates to allocation of system resources within a computer system. See Sankaranarayan at col. 1, lines 34-42. In contrast, claim 1 relates to making reservations from different suppliers. One of ordinary skill in the art would not look to Sankaranarayan in connection with claim 1. Therefore, Sankaranarayan is not an appropriate reference against claim 1.

The new claims relate to placing tentative holds and then to placing exclusive reservations or locks on a resource item. The new claims are believed to be allowable over the reference.

Conclusion

Applicants respectfully submit that the rejections have been overcome by the amendment and remark, and that the claims as amended are now in condition for allowance. Accordingly, Applicants respectfully request the rejections be withdrawn and the claims as amended be allowed.
